Economic Indicators Decline Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government said today its index of leading economic indicators declined in October for the second month in a row, pointing to a possible new slowdown in the economy.

The index dropped five-tenths of a percent last month, compared with a one-tenth of a percent decline in September. Prior to September, the index had increased for six consecutive months.

The index is considered a barometer of future economic activity, and declines over several months are supposed to point to downturns in the economy, just as increases are supposed to signal improvement.

The Commerce Department said four of 11 indicators in the index declined in October. The drops were registered in total liquid assets, net business formation, money balance in 1967 dollars and building permits.

Five indicators increased — sales deliveries, sensitive price changes, orders for plant and equipment, stock prices, and new sales orders.

The department said two other indicators — the worker layoff rate and the average work week — were unchanged.

Commerce said the biggest factor in the index decline was the change in total liquid assets, which increased at a much slower rate in October than September. This indicator measures changes in cash, checking accounts, and commercial paper held by private non-financial investors.

The over-all index in October stood at 102 of the 1967 average of 100. The decline of one-tenth of a percent in September was revised upward from a nineteenth of a percent decline reported last month.

Ford administration economists have been saying in recent weeks that the growth in the economy in the final quarter of the year will not be able to match the rate of growth in the third quarter.

The nation's Gross National Product increased at an annual rate of 13.2 percent in the third quarter, which was a record for any three-month period.

Assistant Commerce Secretary James L. Pate said in a statement that the behavior of the index in September and October, along with other recent economic developments, "suggests a moderation in the pace of the over-all economic recovery."

But Pate said that while some slowing in the recovery from recession is expected in the fourth quarter, "continued strong growth throughout 1976 is anticipated."

He noted that even including the September and October declines, the over-all index in October still was 12.5 percent above its low point of last February.

He also said it's quite possible the October decline will be changed when more complete data on the economic indicators in October become available.

CONSTRUCTION CONTINUED — Construction is progressing on the Big John's Supermarket here. The new supermarket will be located on Highway 641 South, near Glendale Road. No completion date has been released on the market, to be one of the largest in Calloway County.

'Hands Up' Crime Survey To Begin In Community

Local citizens may expect to be called upon this week by members of the Murray Woman's Club in a crash 'Hands Up' project sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. This is a survey to focus the combined interest and power of involved women in reducing crime. The deadline for this survey is December 12.

The answers asked in this survey will yield vital information about what club members think and feel about crime reduction, according to Mrs. A. C. LaFollette, president of the club. The survey sheets will be mailed to Mrs. Carroll E. Miller, president of GFWC in Washington, D. C. who is working with the recently announced "Crash" program in the Law Enforcement Assistance, Department of Justice.

In a recent meeting with Mrs.

LaFollette, Mrs. Fil R. Boston and Mrs. Castle Parker accepted the chairmanship of the survey. Others responding to the crew who will make a door-to-door call are: Mrs. Leonard Vaughn, representing the Alpha Department; Mrs. H. L. Oakley, Delta; Mrs. John Adams, Garden; Mrs. Fil Boston, Home; Mrs. Charles Simons, Creative Arts; Mrs. Sid Easley, Kappa; Mrs. Rob Ray, Sigma; Mrs. J. Donald Brock, Music; Mrs. Castle Parker, Theta; Mrs. Howard Tittsworth, Zeta; and Mrs. A. H. Kopperud, Zeta.

"We have no money for this survey but three businesses responded to the appeal of Mrs. Rob Ray," a spokesman said. The Twin Lakes Office Products, Inc. and the Pool Office Supplies each donated a ream of mimeograph paper. The Murray Vocational Center is donating the stenciling and printing.

Jurors Convict Lynette Fromme Of Ford Assassination Attempt

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The trial of Charles Manson follower Lynette Fromme was a "trying" time for the jurors who convicted her of attempting to assassinate President Ford, the judge says.

U.S. District Court Judge Thomas J. MacBride said the jury, which had been sequestered during the three-week trial, sent him word that they wanted no public exposure — no press interviews, no photographs.

"This has been a trying experience for them; to say the least, and they do not want to be subjected to any more publicity than they have already," he explained.

On Thanksgiving Day, members of the jury could not be reached at their homes for comment on the deliberations preceding their verdict Wednesday.

After the verdict, Sandra Good, a friend of Miss Fromme, predicted violence to those who oppose the cult of Manson, who is serving a life sentence in connection with the 1969 slayings of actress Sharon Tate and six others.

"Your children will rise up and kill you," Miss Good told reporters. "Your own children saw what you've done. Now you've judged yourself again. You all know money is your god."

During the jury's 19½ hours of deliberations, the panel was reported deadlocked at one point, but they offered no hint of their initial voting or how they reached the guilty verdict that could send Miss Fromme to prison on a life sentence.

Both the defense and prosecution agreed that Miss Fromme was seeking publicity for Manson when she pointed a .45-caliber pistol at Ford here Sept. 5 in a park outside the state Capitol.

But the prosecution argued — successfully — that she intended to fire the gun, while the defense claimed she was just threatening the President and called for a verdict of assault, which carries a maximum 10-year sentence.

Murray Firemen Answer Three Calls Thursday

Murray City Firemen had a busy Thanksgiving with three calls, according to department records.

At 9:15 a. m., firemen were called to the home of Sam Foy, 512 Broad, where an electric heater was reported to be the cause of a fire. The fire was already out when firemen arrived.

At 2:34 p. m., firemen went to another electrical fire at the home of Ted Cravens, 109 North 13th, which was also out-on arrival.

At 7:05 p. m., smoke was reported coming from the roof of Sager Glove Co. When firemen investigated, it was determined to be heat coming from a vent. All the trucks and 17 men responded to the call.

London Police Launch Massive Manhunt For McWhirter Slayer

LONDON (AP) — Police launched a massive manhunt today for suspected Irish terrorist slayers of Ross McWhirter, co-editor and compiler of the Guinness Book of World Records.

Police said the Thursday night slaying of the wealthy, outspoken Conservative appeared to be the work of an Irish Republican Army execution squad.

Earlier this month McWhirter, 50, offered a reward of up to $100,000 for information leading to the conviction of the IRA bombers who have taken eight lives in London in the past three months.

Active in right-wing politics, McWhirter had also campaigned for the return of the death penalty for terrorists, and demanded that Irishmen living in Britain be issued photograph-bearing identity cards.

"I know the IRA have got me on a death list," he said three weeks ago, "but it's time someone spoke out against these outrages. I could be the bombers' next victim."

Police said McWhirter was shot in the head and chest as he went to the front door of his imposing half-timbered home in Enfield, North London.

They said McWhirter's wife, Rosemary, had just arrived home by car at 6:45 p. m. when she spotted two gunmen who produced revolvers. She fled into the house and told her husband, who was shot as he got to the front door.

Mrs. McWhirter rushed to her husband's crumpled body as the gunmen fled in her car, which was later found two miles from the scene.

McWhirter was rushed to a hospital but died shortly after arrival.

Police said the murder had all the signs of a knock-on-the-door IRA assassination, so familiar in Northern Ireland over the past six years. Until now IRA terrorism in Britain has consisted of car bombs, letter bombs, and bombings at crowded restaurants.

Fears that a new-style IRA terror campaign was underway were to be discussed by Britain's top security chiefs and Scotland Yard later today. Tentative plans had already been made to extend bodyguard protection to more prominent people, informed sources said.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson said he was "shocked" by the killing, and op-

Christmas Parade Appearance By MSU Band To Mark End Of Year

When the Marching Thoroughbred Band of Murray State University appears in the Murray Christmas Parade Saturday, Nov. 29, it will mark the end of the first season under director David A. Wells.

Besides giving performances at all home football games, the band marched in the Homecoming parade, made the trip to Western Kentucky University for the final football game of the year, and performed during the Murray Regional Marching Band Festival sponsored by the Kentucky Music Educators Association.

John Goode, Cadiz, was the field commander and Steve Coleman, Paducah, the assistant field commander for the season. The majorette line was headed by Robin Gilman, Flat River, Mo., and Julia Fields, Gilbertsville, while Vickie Riggs, Owensboro, was the Flag Corps captain.

Section leaders were: Sue Williams, Hodgenville, flutes; Julie Skaggs, Utica, and Gale Ottway, Paducah, clarinets; Gary Moore and Mike Yaffee, both of Paducah, saxophones; Bruce Soderstrom, Lakewood, N. Y., trumpets; Joe Park, Trenton, horns; Eddie Pawlawski, Brandenburg, trombones; Donnie Travis, Camden Tenn.; tubas; and Rob Seay, Paducah, percussion.

Responsibility for forming band policy rested with the Band Council, composed of the following members: Soderstrom, president; Robert Wilson, Hopkinsville, vice-president; Jeri Fischer, Henderson, secretary-treasurer; John Young, Huntsville, Ala., administrative assistant; and Wells.

Several awards were presented to band members at the first annual Marching Band Banquet last week. Goode was selected by band members as the Outstanding Band Member for 1975, the highest award.

Also recognized were members of the band who have marched for five years—Steve Anderson and Cassey Hendrix, both of Paducah, Kevin Luck, Henderson, and Soderstrom. The clarinet section was announced as the winner in the corps competition.

Wells, noting that membership in the band is open to any student on campus, said anyone desiring further information may write or call: David Wells, Director, Marching Thoroughbred Band, Box 3070, University Station, Murray KY 42071 (telephone 502 782-4151).

Dear Abby
By Abigail Van Buren

Widow Needs to Be Snored to Sleep

DEAR ABBY: My husband died last winter, and ever since, I have had a terrible time falling asleep. I don't want to get into the habit of taking sleeping pills.

I recently visited my sister, and the sound of her husband's snoring in the next room put me to sleep instantly! Every night I was there I slept like a baby. I soon realized that what I'd been missing all these months was the sound of my beloved late husband's snoring. It must have given me a sense of security and well being.

I suppose it is ridiculous to ask if there is some place I can buy a record or a tape of a man snoring. But that could be the answer to my problem. Can you help me?

SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

DEAR SLEEPLESS: Ask your sister's husband to record a long snoring session on a cassette. All you'll need is something on which to play it, and you're off to dreamland!

DEAR ABBY: My son, a brilliant, ambitious honor student, has just announced that he is dropping out of law school (in his second year) to get a job so he can marry a girl he has gotten pregnant.

This young man was told the facts of life early so there is no excuse for such an "accident." Nowadays, no girl has to get pregnant unless she wants to—or is awfully dumb. And, Abby, this girl is far from dumb—she's 21 and a college dropout.

I can't help but feel that the girl used my son to escape from a family situation she found intolerable.

I know I can't prevent the marriage, but I would like to know how I can honestly accept this girl when I feel she used my son and cost him his lifelong dream—to become a lawyer.

CRUSHED IN COLORADO

DEAR CRUSHED: Unless you want to alienate your son completely, you had better "accept" the girl—and graciously.

If your son is as brilliant and ambitious as you say he is, he'll find a way to resume his education and realize his lifelong dream.

DEAR ABBY: I am anti-trousers for females. So much so that I refuse to extend any gentlemanly courtesies to a woman who is wearing trousers. (I won't hold a door open for her, allow her to go ahead of me or help her with her chair.)

If I get a waitress who is wearing trousers, and doing a good job, she gets NO tip. If she does an excellent job, she gets only a 5 per cent tip, but I won't go back to that restaurant. A waitress wearing a skirt (length unimportant) gets anywhere from 15 per cent to 25 per cent tip, depending upon the service she gives me.

My wife wears trousers once in a while. So do my daughters-in-law, but if they don't wear dresses in public, I refuse to go along. And when I don't go, they have no one to pick up the tab.

I've heard all the excuses women use for wearing pants instead of skirts—"they're more comfortable, hide the runs in my stockings, keep my legs warm in winter," etc.—but I still hate 'em.

PREFERS SKIRTS

DEAR PREFERS: To each his own, but I think you're unfair to penalize a waitress just because the legs she rushes around on to serve you happen to be in trousers!

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1975

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20) ♈
Controversial issues could cause contention, endless word-wasting. Don't join in. Rather, listen to all sides and you will arrive at the truth.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21) ♉
Be solicitous of fellowmen but not to the point of being "taken in." There are some who would prey on anyone who will listen.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21) ♊
A swinging day if you're in the mood. But care! Too much "individuality" could get out of hand, too much imagination leads to freakishness. Avoid the bizarre.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23) ♋
Accelerate the tempo of your activities but avoid the unthinking haste that makes the proverbial waste. You may have to make some concessions but they will pay in the long run.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23) ♌
Study all requirements; discriminate carefully between what's necessary and what's not too important in your schedule. There may not be time for all, but be sure to tend to essentials fully.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) ♍
As with Gemini, you may have tendencies toward the unconventional. Watch out for those who are highly erratic, who'll try anything just to be "different."

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) ♎
Be prepared for changes, perhaps some confusion. You may take an unexpected trip, have surprise visitors or receive an unusual invitation. At any rate, variety should make the weekend stimulating.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22) ♏
Mars influences now encourage well-organized moves, but you will need a great deal of resourcefulness to cover all the angles. Evening hours promise stimulating social activities.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21) ♐
A conflict between business and personal affairs may bring on some tension. You can counter by isolating the essential and getting it out of the way.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) ♑
Take stock of your resources and give thought to new moves now — even if you do nothing about them until next week.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) ♒
This should be a highly stimulating weekend. Both travel and social activities promise to be most enlivening. Romance also favored.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) ♓
Personal relationships somewhat unsettling. Don't become involved in the affairs of others. Results could be unfortunate.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a fine mind, extreme versatility and lofty ambitions — toward which you work determinedly and unflinchingly. You should have — and probably need — two outlets for your talents: If you choose business as a career, cultivate art as a hobby and vice versa. You may be attracted to public life and, if so, could succeed as a statesman, diplomat, head of an institution or as an entertainer. You are a person of high ideals, with built-in magnetism and a strong feeling for the artistic. Birthdate of: Louisa May Alcott, author; A. Bronson Alcott, educator, philosopher.

Suburban Homemakers Have Session

The Suburban Homemakers met at 6:00 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Leon Adams, with the president, Mrs. Holmes Dunn, presiding. The devotion, taken from I Thessalonians, and the thought for the day from Psalms 100 were read by Mrs. Max Farley.

The minutes and treasurer's report were given by Mrs. Prentice Dunn. Eleven members and one visitor answered the roll with, "something I like to collect."

Mrs. Robert Hendon presented the lesson on one dish meals. Some ladies brought casseroles, others brought home baked rolls, salads and desserts and a delicious meal was enjoyed. After the meal recipes were exchanged.

Plans were made for the family Christmas dinner to be Dec. 20 at 6 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Robert Hendon.

I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. Psalm 69:30.

For the Christian, the song of thanksgiving is always his model prayer. O thanks be to God — that is our continual praise to God.

Isn't It The Truth

After two decades of Vietnam, a decade of fast-rising inflation, three years of Watergate and enough of the CIA, we have learned that hardly anybody in government expects to hear out loud how things really are because nearly everybody hides so much that is true that they can't tell the truth without lying.

Let's Stay Well

Early Treatment Of Mouth Cancer Essential

By F.J.L. Blassingame, M.D.

Cancer of the mouth is a serious form of malignancy and requires prompt attention. In fact, early diagnosis and appropriate treatment are usually essential for a successful outcome.

Any ulcer or nodule that is present in the mouth far as long as two weeks should be examined by a physician or a dentist.

A growth on the lip should be suspect, particularly on the lower lip. It is a common site of cancer in older persons, especially if they smoke or are regularly exposed to sunlight by working outdoors. Fortunately, if diagnosed early and treated properly, cancer of the lip can be cured in better than 90 per cent of the cases.

Likewise, swellings and sores which develop on the tongue or elsewhere inside the mouth should be regarded with suspicion. If they persist, they should be evaluated early by a professionally trained person and treated promptly because of the danger of cancer cells spreading into the neck and chest.

The exact cause of mouth cancer is unknown, as is true with other forms of this disease. While chronic irritation (from a broken, jagged tooth, an ill-fitting dental appliance, or pipe smoking) apparently is a cause, the cancerous changes may arise without any apparent local aggravation.

The only way to be sure whether a sore or lump is benign or cancerous is by removing a small piece of the involved tissue and examining it under the microscope. Then, after the diagnosis is established, the proper treatment can be carried out.

Do not try home remedies and lose valuable time. Get professional treatment early.

Q: Mr. S.S. inquires skeptically about sinus trouble and wonders whether it can be diagnosed accurately or if it is a matter largely of guesswork.

A: Unfortunately, the term sinus trouble is loosely used, especially by the public, for almost any chronic nasal problem. More often it may be an allergy or local irritation rather than a sinusitis (acute or chronic inflammation) which can be accurately diagnosed by an examination of the nose, shining a light through parts of the skull, and X-ray. An acute inflammation of a sinus, which may follow a bout of "flu," is often painful.

Q: Mr. F.T. asks what can be done about his emphysema to help him be more comfortable.

A: Emphysema is a serious, disabling disease, especially in its advanced states. You have to make best use of the remainder of your lung tissue. Avoid all smoking of tobacco. Treat acute respiratory infections promptly. "Flu" can be dangerous for you. Talk to your physician about special breathing exercises and the possibility of placing your case under the care of a specialist for lung rehabilitation. Take regular exercise, but avoid any strenuous form which produces shortness of breath.

BECOMING RECONCILED

Genesis 45:4-8

Unwilling to make himself known to his brothers, who had despitely used him, in the presence of those outside the family, Joseph had the banquet hall cleared of all except the sons of Jacob. He did not want his feelings exposed to the gaze of others. Neither did he want to embarrass his brothers by letting others know about their sin against him. He did not have the slightest desire to retaliate by bringing pain to them. Grudge carrying and the get-even spirit too often dominate people in circumstances of this nature. Joseph was willing to leave the judgment of their sin to God and to forgive them heartily.

Joseph revealed himself to his brothers, and then told them not to be angry with themselves for the sin and crime of selling him into slavery, thereby assuring them that he would not take vengeance on them or do them any harm. Beneath it all Joseph was grateful that God had overruled their evil purpose and deed, and had changed the course of his life so remarkably. The very things he thought at the time were so evil had turned out to be blessings. It took character and godliness to recognize God's hand in all that had taken place. It is always much easier to retaliate for wrongs than to believe that God has a purpose in them and to wait until that purpose is revealed. To be able to read the meaning of God in the events of life is a magnificent attainment. Unfortunately, very few seem to be able to do it. It is glorious to be able to understand God's meanings and what He purposes for us. Whatever happens to God's children, they should hold fast to these words: "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

God had sent Joseph into Egypt to make provision for his brethren when a famine came to their homeland. Wisely, efficiently, and successfully Joseph had saved the surplus agricultural products of the years of plentiful fruitfulness for the seven lean years, so the people were enabled to live without suffering when the famine actually came.

Genesis 45:15

Joseph's greatness and magnanimity were displayed by his forgiveness of those who had sinned so grievously against him. His brothers were restored completely to his favor. He kissed them and wept over them in the joy of reunion and reconciliation. What a beautiful and touching scene! It is doubtful if there is any case on record where forgiveness was more genuine or reconciliation was more complete. His welcome proved beyond a doubt that the reconciliation was all that could have been desired. Thereafter their fellowship was blessed.

Genesis 50:15-21

Immediately after their return to Egypt fear gripped the hearts of the brothers who had sold Joseph into slavery. They were frightened at the thought of the possibility, and perhaps the likelihood, of Joseph turning upon them in revenge. They were of the opinion that he had spared their lives primarily to safeguard the feelings of their aged father, but now that Jacob was gone they expected Joseph to punish them. In thinking that he would vent his anger upon them, they made the mistake of judging Joseph by themselves, but he was not like them. Joseph understood clearly that for one to take revenge is to usurp God's prerogative, and that he very definitely refused to do, and so should we.

The apprehensiveness and anxiety of the brothers prompted them to send a messenger to Joseph. He was wounded deeply by the entirely unwarranted feeling of his brothers. He had forgiven them and provided for them for years, and now they were attempting to open the old grievance. The fact that they did not believe him and trust him fully grieved Joseph so much that he wept profusely. Joseph emphasized that, while they had meant what they did against him for his personal injury, God had meant it for good. He saw in their deed not the meanness of men but the providence of God. He had learned that God rules and overrules in order to accomplish His purpose and to execute His plan. Ultimately God's meaning was made clear to Joseph and he exclaimed: "God meant it unto good." This great soul saw God in every part of life and truly believed that He was the master of every situation.

When we are unable to grasp God's meaning, it is our duty and privilege to trust Him. We can trust Him, even though we may not be able to understand everything about the circumstances which we encounter. Regardless of what situations may arise, we can trust God and rely implicitly upon Him. Whatever happens, we can always be assured of the fact that God is good and that He intends it for the benefit of those of us who are His children.

As an expression of the tenderness and solicitude of his heart, Joseph talked personally with his brethren, and renewed his promise to provide for them and to protect them and their posterity. Some of their little ones had been placed upon his knees during their infancy in order that they might receive his blessing. After they had grown, Joseph used his influence to get them to exercise faith in God and then to live in accordance with His will.

Gratitude, A Contemporary Virtue

By Martin Mattingly
St. Leo's Catholic Church

The following announcement was published in the classified section of a daily newspaper: "I am fully responsible for the debts and obligations of my wife,

Dorothy, both present and future. I am delighted to be the provider for a woman who has borne me two fine children, listened patiently to all my gripes, and with an overabundance of love has made the past 15 years of my life the happiest I have known. On this, our 15th wedding anniversary, I am proud to express my gratitude publicly." This is a refreshing contrast to the "I-am-responsible-for-no-debts - other-than-my-own" announcements. It was a beautiful expression of love and gratitude.

Gratitude is always contemporary. In our own country we set aside one day each year for special gratitude to our Creator. We recognize Him as the Source of all the truth, beauty, goodness (material and spiritual) we find in our world. The things we find pleasing to us in the world are merely faint reflections of the infinitude of perfections in the God who made us. We recognize God as the creator of our earth, which is congenial to human life, and of human life itself which is recognized as the "image and likeness" of the Creator. Our highest endowments and our dignity stem from this likeness to the Creator. Our dependence on Him is absolute.

So we realize that our intelligence, our ability to live and form friendships, and our human resourcefulness, all of which give us satisfaction and fulfillment, are faint reflections of these same perfections in the Creator of all. All the world of nature, which can give us joy and pleasure, are reflections of the beauty, power, and grandeur of the Creator.

Our appreciation for the freedoms and human rights we enjoy in our country is based on the recognition of the human dignity which is God's gift to us. Our appreciation for the wealth in our country is based on the bounty of God in providing us with forests, fertile soil, waters, and minerals in the earth, together with the human resourcefulness to make use of them.

So, while we see the beauty of gratitude in the expression of a man's debt to his wife, we should express our gratitude to God, our Creator and Sustainer. The time for thanksgiving is EVERY day.

The Family Lawyer

Permissive Parents

With her marriage in trouble, Martha decided that the real villains were the "permissive parents" who lived across the street. In a court suit she told the judge: "Their daughter has been chasing my husband shamelessly. It is up to them to make her behave."

But when it turned out that the daughter was already 20 years old, the judge dismissed the case.

"To expect parents to vacuum-pack a mature daughter," said the judge, "is to expect the impossible."

Of course, the law does not expect parents to do the impossible in controlling the conduct of their children. On the other hand, the law does insist that they impose a reasonable amount of restraint.

Another case involved a 16-year-old boy with a habit of beating up younger children on the block. His parents not only failed to criticize their son but even defended him against complaints by the neighbors.

Finally sued by one of his youthful victims, the parents were ordered to pay damages. The court said they could and should have tried to curb behavior that was so plainly antisocial.

Even childish exuberance, if given free rein, may lead to parental liability.

Suppose a youngster goes racing around a department store while his mother unconcernedly does her shopping. If the child knocks somebody down the mother may well be held liable on grounds of negligence.

She cannot take a hands-off attitude, said one court in considering this kind of a situation, when she "observes the dangerous behavior and has an opportunity to exercise control."

Tigers To Open With Tough Trigg County

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor
Here's a formula you never learned in school buy maybe should have: Potential + work equals success.

And with that, you have the formula that might best describe the Murray High Tigers this season. The key question is simply this: How much are the Tigers willing to work?

With a host of lettermen returning and boosting one of the larger lineups in the First Region, the Tigers will open their campaign Tuesday with a home contest against Trigg County.

Trigg County is expected to be one of the best teams in this part of the state. They are big, quick and experienced. But for that matter, so is Murray High.

It may be after Christmas before the Tigers tell. But if they do so before then, they know they are in for a good season. Because before Christmas, the Tigers play in succession Trigg County, Tilghman, Carlisle County, Christian County and Symsonia.

First-year Coach Cary Miller hasn't set any goals. For one thing, when the schedule is as tough as it is, you really can't set goals until you've played a couple of games and see just how good you are.

"We have the potential for a fine club and a fine year," Miller said. "But the only problem is we haven't played any games yet. Our people have worked real hard thus far and done everything that has been expected of them."

On paper, the Tigers look

If there's any one spot in particular that looks impressive, it's the center position.

Senior Bob Wilder, who at 6-4 1/2 can handle the ball as well as most guards, returns for his third year in the starting lineup. Wilder is a fine outside shooter, tough under the boards and could well be one of the best all-around players in the First Region. Also playing center will be 6-4 senior Chris Kurz who has developed much over the past year.

Junior Andrea Perry will hold down one of the forward spots. Perry broke into the lineup last year in the final game and finished with 18 points and 14 rebounds when the Tigers were eliminated from the Region Tourney by champion Carlisle County. Perry is just over 6-3.

Perry can shoot with anyone. And with a little more work on defense and some more aggressiveness under the boards, could give the Tigers one of the most feared inside attacks in the Region. Expected to play a lot of ball also is sophomore Frank Gilliam, a 6-2 leaper who by January, could be pushing for a starting berth.

The other forward position will be held by 6-4 senior David Frank. Frank has a fine outside shooting touch and is playing with more aggressiveness than he did last year. Lindsey Hudspeth, a 5-11 junior who came out late after football season was over, will also be playing forward and pressing for a starting job as soon as he catches up with the rest of the group.

"That's one of our problems. We have several kids who are a month behind the others because of football," Miller said.

Also expected to play at forward is Keith Tabers, a 6-0 senior.

Murray appears to be deep in guards. Heading the list is 5-9 junior Raymond Sims, a starter last season. Sims has a fine outside shooting touch and has the quickest hands on the team. Senior Donnie Williams is 6-1 and not only gives the Tigers good ballhandling support but can also crash into the middle and add some rebounding depth.

Another guard candidate is Richie Richardson, a 5-11 junior. In the Tilghman jamboree last week, Richardson, one of the best shooters on the team, came off the bench to score 10 points. Also expected to see some action at guard is 5-10 junior Brett Harcourt.

"We will have pretty good quickness and adequate shooting. I just hope we will be aggressive and of course, improve over the course of the season," Miller said.

"We have not proven that we can play together as a unit plus our defense is untested."

Last year, Murray High finished 9-14. And with the schedule the Tigers have this season, they could lose a lot of games. But if enough work is put into the formula, then it could be a very good year for Murray High.

Canadiens' Defense Bolstered By Return Of Attorney Dryden

By The Associated Press
The Montreal Canadiens are making a good case for the defense and with a lawyer in goal, that's a pretty strong argument.

"Last year we took no pride in our defense, but now we're really a hard-nosed team," says goaltender Ken Dryden. "We no longer shy away from making the big defensive play. We seem to come up with it when we have to."

Dryden, a full-fledged lawyer who was lured back into hockey by big money last year after a short sabbatical, has never been better in his career.

And Thursday night, he continued to glitter in goal while leading the Canadiens to a 2-1 National Hockey League victory over the New York Islanders. His performance plunged his goals-against average under 1.7, a figure that leads the NHL.

"The team is more consistent this year," said Dryden, who has accounted for 12 victories, four of them shutouts. "Everybody has been playing better. I'm playing as well in the net as I did before my sabbatical. And I'm playing better outside of the net."

In the only other NHL game, the Kansas City Scouts nipped the St. Louis Blues 3-2. In the World Hockey Association, the Indianapolis Racers stopped the Winnipeg Jets 3-1; the Minnesota Fighting Saints turned back the Cincinnati Stingers 5-3; the San Diego Mariners beat the Quebec Nordiques 5-1 and the Calgary Cowboys blasted the Phoenix Roadrunners 5-1.

Steve Shutt's goal with 3:11 gone in the final period provided the winning goal for Montreal. Islander goalie Billy Smith had made a save on a shot by Serge Savard but was then caught out of position as Shutt pumped in the winning goal.

The victory was the first in seven games for the Canadiens over the Islanders. Montreal, which had three losses and three ties with the Islanders, had last beaten them in March 1974.

By Patsy
Beauchamp

The Murray State women's basketball team, in only two games, has scored 130 while their opponents have scored 86 points.

The Lady Racers have grabbed 101 rebounds compared to the opposition's 66. Pretty good for a team that returns only three starters, one of which did not play in either game due to a knee injury. Yeah, most people would agree those statistics are pretty good.

But the Racers lost one of those games. How could that happen with such statistics? Could have happened because one game was 85-18 blasting of the Ft. Campbell Eagles with the Racers outrebounding by a 52-12 margin.

Subtract those numbers from the total stats and that leaves a disappointing 68-45 loss to Union University on Monday night.

Coach Dew Rowlett had predicted the loss to Union, mainly on the lack of outside shooters. "I knew we would lose to Union," confessed Coach Rowlett. "It would have been a lot closer if Debbie Hayes had been in there." Hayes is a junior forward that has been tagged as one of the best players in the nation.

Most of the fans that say the Ft. Campbell game came away with the feeling that the Racers could do big things this year.

But in the Union game, those fans had to look twice to make sure Murray State was out there. Even though Murray had Union beat man for man in height, it always looked as though Union had more players on the floor. Height was the only thing MSU beat Union in. And even that didn't help. Second effort enabled Union to get off two, three, and even four shots under their basket.

Most of the time though, Union didn't need another shot. Hitting on 29 of 70 field goals for 41 per cent and 10 of 17 free throws for 59 percent, Union proved to rule the rims.

Murray was cold all night as they only connected on 20 of 67 field goals for 30 percent and five of 12 free throws for 42 percent.

The quick Union defense had little trouble breaking up the offensive plays of the Racers. In fact, it looked like Union knew the plays as well as the Racers themselves, especially in the second half. Union anticipated and intercepted passes almost every time the Racer offense executed a play.

Coach Rowlett feels the lack of experience was largely responsible for this action. As the season progresses so should the Racers.

Perhaps by midseason that "little something" that every team needs to click will creep into MSU's line-up enabling the Racers to play to their capabilities.

For those who don't know, the lady Racers will be playing several preliminary games to the Murray State varsity action.

As you may or may not know, the women's basketball squad has players that are on athletic scholarship. Some of the best high school players in the area have been recruited to MSU.

Jackie Jo Mounts, named as one of the top five high school players in Ohio, was the first female to receive an athletic scholarship from Murray State.

Be on hand for the next lady Racer game. They need your support and enthusiasm too. The next home game will be Dec. 3, 5:15 p.m.

Three State Football Titles To Be On Line This Weekend

By MIKE CLARK

AP Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Three prep football titles will be settled this weekend when the Class A, AA and AAA championship games are played at Western Kentucky University in Bowling Green.

Top-ranked Heath, 13-0, meets unranked Ludlow, 11-1, in the Class A title game at 11 a.m. today, with unbeaten and No. 1 Middlesboro, 12-0, tackling No. 4 Scott, 12-2, in the Class AA title game at 2 p.m.

On Saturday, No. 1 Franklin-Simpson, 13-0, puts a perfect record on the line against second-ranked Ft. Thomas Highlands, 12-1, in the Class AAA championship game.

While those three classes are finishing off business for 1975, the Class AAAA playoffs will enter the semifinal stage.

In the State AAAA playoff Friday, No. 1 Ashland, 13-0, travels to No. 5 Paducah Tilghman in a contest that will earn the winner a shot at the Jefferson County champion in the Dec. 5 state title game.

The Jefferson County title game matches No. 2 St. Xavier, 11-0 and the Louisville city champion, against No. 5 Jefferson County, the county region champion which is 11-1.

Heath earned its finals berth by downing No. 2 Harrodsburg 15-14 in a hair-raising semifinal last week. Clarence Johnson, who has rushed for over 1,900 yards, turned pass receiver against Harrodsburg and collected the game-winning conversion pass from quarterback Terry Fletcher.

Ludlow counters with a big back of its own in Jim Lokasak, who scored every point — four touchdowns and three conversions — as Ludlow dumped Elkhorn City 27-6.

Middlesboro got four touchdowns runs from fullback Billy Hamblin in dumping Rowan County 41-12 while Scott County blasted previously unbeaten Green County 43-0 behind a host of running backs.

Bulls Trade Thurmond
CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Bulls, ending several days of speculation, have traded reserve center Nate Thurmond and his $350,000 salary to the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Bulls' reserve forward Rowland Garrett also is going to Cleveland, a spokesman for the National Basketball Association team said Thursday. In return, Cavaliers' center Steve Patterson and rookie forward Eric Fernsten will come to Chicago.

In other developments, the Bulls obtained veteran forward Jack Marin from the Buffalo Braves for "future considerations," and guard Jerry Sloan was placed on the injured reserve list, which means he will miss at least five games.

Thurmond, 34, came to the Bulls last year from the Golden State Warriors. The 6-foot-11, 13-year veteran started only a few games before being replaced by Tom Boerwinkle. As a member of the Warriors, Thurmond was named to the NBA all-star team seven times.

He failed to show for Chicago's Tuesday night game against Cleveland and missed Wednesday's team practice. He was fined 1-82nd of his salary for missing the game — the NBA plays an 82-game schedule — and $100 for missing practice.

Thurmond has said the Bulls' front office was making him "a scapegoat" for the team's dismal start this season, and Wednesday he told the club he wanted to be traded.

Racers To Open Season With Kansas Saturday

The Murray basketball team, which rallied from a 14-point deficit to beat Athletics in Action, East 79-73 in an exhibition game Monday night, will open its regular season Saturday at Kansas University.

Kansas has been Big 8 Conference champion the last two seasons, but lost five of last season's players to graduation. Back, however are 6-8 forward Norm Cook, 6-9 center Danie Von Moore, and 6-2 guard Clint Johnson, and they have all logged a considerable amount of experience.

"We have some obvious deficiencies but we're not without talent," KU Coach Ted Owens says. "I think this team will have more speed and quickness than perhaps any we've had here. For us to be successful, however, our many young people must develop fast and learn to play as a team."

Other lettermen on the KU squad are 6-10 forward Ken Koenigs, 6-0 guard Milt Gibson, and 6-4 guard Cris Barnhouse. Newcomers are 6-4 guard Reuben Shelton, 6-7 forward Herb Nobles, and 7-1 center Paul Mokeski.

"They're awfully big and we'll be doing a lot of looking up at them," Racer Coach Fred Overton says. "It will take a super 40-minute effort for us to stay in the game with them. But if we're patient and use our quickness to advantage, we may be able to make a game of it."

Overton said he couldn't be anything but pleased at the Racers' play against Athletics in Action, particularly in the second half. "I thought our second-half defense was the major factor in our winning," he said, "but we did a lot of other things well, too. We had 14 fast-break opportunities and cashed in 10 of them, we had very few turnovers and I thought our kids, especially (Grover) Woolard, did a great job of getting the ball off the board and out on the fast break."

Woolard had 14 of his 16 points in the second half. Veteran forward Jesse Williams led the Racers in scoring with 22 points. Freshman forward Vic Jordan had 12, guards Tommy Wade and Paul Smith 8 each, and center Earner Mays 6. Smith and Mays are also freshmen.

But Overton kept returning to his team's defense. "We took seven charging fouls in the second half, which is evidence of the kind of defense we played, and I thought that really turned the game around. That's more charges than we drew all last season. Those freshmen kids really did some hustling, too, and that seemed to fire everybody up."

The Racers were trailing 64-55 with 7:31 left in the game but then ran off 16 straight points in the next four minutes to take a 71-64 lead and put the game away.

Following the Kansas game, the Racers will return to Murray for games with Ft. Lewis College Monday night and Tennessee Wesleyan Wednesday, before playing at the University of Louisville Saturday.

Home Court Advantage Has Not Been Asset For Cleveland So Far

By The Associated Press
The "home court advantage" hasn't been any advantage for the Cleveland Cavaliers so far this season.

In fact, the way he year has been going, it's seen a disadvantage for them to play at home.

"Two baskets a row in the late going everytime we play at home seem to mean the ballgame," said Cleveland Coach Bill Fitch after his Cavaliers dropped a 95-84 National Basketball Association decision to the Kansas City Kings Thursday night.

The defeat jugged the Cavs' homecourt record to 1-6. They've been more prosperous on the road, pitting 10 games.

"We stood around too much," said a disconsolate Fitch. "When we run, we're tough. Shooting 45 per cent looks good, but when you take the shots we had tonight, it isn't much."

Jimmy Walker and Nate Archibald, couple of old hands, combined for 53 points to pace the Kansas City offense.

Along with Walker's 30 points and Archibald's 23, the Kings got a clutch basket by rookie Bill Robinson with 27 seconds left to beat the Cavaliers. Kansas City equaled its biggest previous lead of the game at 86-79 with 4:45 remaining. Cleveland tied the score at 86-86 and 88-88 before a basket and two free throws by Walker and Robinson's basket put the game on ice at 94-91.

Warriors 106, Bucks 105
Rookie Gus Williams scored 13 of his 22 points in a furious fourth-quarter rally that gave defending NBA champion Golden State its victory over Milwaukee.

The Bucks led by as much as 31 points in the first half, but the Warriors kept chipping away and by the middle of the fourth quarter had slashed the deficit to 97-87. After the Bucks made it 101-87, the Warriors scored 10 points in a row with Williams accounting for eight of them.

Knicks 96, Bullets 90
Earl Monroe scored eight of his 20 points in the fourth quarter to lead New York over slumping Washington. The Bullets, who have dropped four in a row and six of their last seven games, led 72-71 as the final period started. But Monroe and Walt Frazier took charge as the Knicks outscored the Bullets 12-2 in the first 2½ minutes to take an 83-74 advantage.

Stars 128, Colonels 126
Ron Boone tipped in an inbounds pass from Jim Eakins with one second left in overtime to give Utah a tinging victory over Kentucky. Kentucky had tied the game at 115-115 when guard Bird Averitt tossed in a 30-foot three-point shot with one second left in regulation play. Averitt led the Colonels with 43 points, while Boone had 34 to pace the Stars.

Bicentennial Theme Seen In Holiday Array of Toys

NEW YORK (AP) — The celebration of the nation's Bicentennial will be in evidence in toy stores this Christmas through a wide array of toys, dolls, games, handicrafts and hobby kits with historical and nostalgic themes, according to a toy industry spokesman.

Playthings based on events in American history have always been staples in the toy industry, notes Merlin H. Birk, president of Toy Manufacturers of America, the industry association.

The difference this year and next, he explains, is in the variety and number of products especially designed to depict for children the nation's founding and growth.

"Virtually all toys are loaded down versions of real-life concepts and objects, and these playthings help children understand their world as well as the 'grown-up' world," Birk points out.

As such, he believes, Bicentennial-influenced toys will provide opportunities for parents and children to learn about the changes that have taken place in America during the past 200 years.

The toy industry spokesman explains that the Bicentennial toys category includes playthings tied to a particular event or era in history, as well as those suggesting nostalgic themes.

"American history topics will be evident in many new toys, quiz and board games, jigsaw puzzles and dolls," Birk adds. "Specific examples would be dolls with colonial and other period costumes and games about the Revolutionary and Civil Wars."

Examples of historical-theme model kits include the USS Constitution, the Titanic, the earliest Model T Ford, the Wright brothers' first airplane and numerous other vintage ships, cars and planes.

"Items such as dioramas, picture puzzles, paint sets and toy slide viewers will depict people and events in history, and past eras will be suggested by colonial villages, old-fashioned doll houses and 'antique' juvenile furniture," Birk says.

Nostalgic themes relating to the Bicentennial observation will be represented by a variety of playthings such as handcraft kits for needlepointing, quilting and candlemaking, and by electric trains modeled after early steam locomotives, tenders and cars.

AN INVESTMENT IN YOUR FUTURE

ATTEND CHURCH

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

A certain Samaritan as he journeyed came where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion on him." (Luke 11:33)

The story of the Good Samaritan seems particularly relevant today. More and more frequently we hear of people who are beaten and robbed in broad daylight among crowds of people, yet no one comes to their aid.

What has happened to our Christian compassion so beautifully illustrated by the story of the Samaritan. Read this story once again, and contemplate its meaning for today.

Opry Celebrates Golden Anniversary

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — It started with a country fiddler who boasted he could "fiddle the taters off the vine." The Grand Ole Opry is 50 years old today, a multimillion dollar business that hasn't forgotten its roots.

The fiddler was 80-year-old Uncle Jimmy Thompson and standing beside him during that first broadcast was George D.

Hay, the "Solemn Old Judge" who presided over the weekly broadcasts until his death in 1968.

The Opry began on radio as the "WSM Barn Dance," named for the Nashville station over which it was aired.

The program followed "The Music Appreciation Hour" on Saturday nights and one night, Hay announced, "For the past hour we have been listening to music taken largely from grand opera, but now we will present the Grand Ole Opry."

The Grand Ole Opry was born. Over the years, on radio and television, its hundreds of thousands of followers made Nashville the country music capital of the world.

In the early years, the Opry featured such performers as harmonica player Deford Bailey, one of the first black country music performers, and Uncle Dave Macon, who joined the Opry in 1926 and remained a headliner for years.

In July, 1939, the Opry outgrew its studio facilities and moved to the War Memorial Auditorium, and four years later it moved to Nashville's Ryman Auditorium.

Although the floor was covered with sawdust and the splintery pews were crude, there soon were lines reaching several blocks before each performance as people queued up for the 3,000 seats inside.

In the late 1930's, the Opry began adding singers, such as Roy Acuff, now generally regarded as the "King of Country Music."

A short time later, an instrumentalist in the band of Pee Wee King and his Golden West Cowboys stepped forward to sing. That was the start for Eddy Arnold and his Tennessee Plowboys. He was followed by Red Foley, Ernest Tubbs, Cowboy Copas and Hank Williams.

In 1971, construction began on a $15-million facility to house the Opry, along with a $28-million family entertainment center, Opryland U.S.A.

The Opry's first performance in its new home was on March 16, 1974. Richard Nixon, then President, was on hand, trying unsuccessfully to play with the yo-yo that Acuff uses as a stage prop.

Bodies Of Indiana Men Are Recovered

STURGIS, Ky. (AP) — Indiana and Kentucky police found the bodies of two Evansville, Ind., men late Thursday, a day after they were reported missing.

The men were identified as Ronald Russell, 43, and Charles Pettit, 32. The bodies were found at the bottom of a small embankment off Ky. 109 near this Union County town.

A young woman had told police that the men were murdered and said that she saw the killings. The woman told Evansville police that the killers also kidnapped and raped her. Evansville police are searching for two other suspects in the case.

Police arrested two men Wednesday after a high-speed chase. They were identified as Harold Brown, 26, of Sturgis, and Ernest Bell, 24, of Evansville. Both have been charged with kidnapping and rape and are being held on $100,000 bond.

Police said they found blood on the steps of the apartment in which the woman said the men were killed. But the bodies were not found in the apartment when police investigated.

The search for Pettit and Russell had centered on an area near Sturgis.

Welcome Rains Help Contain Raging Fires

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "The rains were the biggest fire fighter we had," said one weary fireman as two brush fires that had raged in the hills north and east of Los Angeles were contained.

In five days, the fires charred 100 square miles of land, caused $17.5 million damage, drove 5,600 persons from their homes and created the danger of flooding from winter storms.

Mop-up operations continued today, but all but a few of the thousands of fire fighters who struggled with the blazes in the San Gabriel Mountains had gone home.

Officials declared the fires contained Thursday night after a cold front swept a quarter inch of rain into the area.

"We had planned three hard days for mop-up operations, but the rains did it in 20 minutes," said Dave Waite, a U.S. Forest Service official. "The rains were the biggest fire fighter we had."

The fires, one in the northern foothills above Los Angeles, the other 20 miles to the east above the San Gabriel Valley, burned mostly through timber lands and brush-covered hills. They blanketed the city with smoke by day, and tinted the night sky with an orange glow.

Watershed damage to the now-denuded hillsides was pegged at about $17 million. The 40-odd structures damaged or destroyed by the fires added another $500,000 to the total bill.

Ford Recommendation For NYC To Be Top On Congress' Agenda

WASHINGTON (AP) — When Congress returns from its Thanksgiving recess, the top item on its agenda will be President Ford's proposal that the United States loan New York City the money it needs to avoid default.

Ford, backing away from his hard-line stand against offering any federal assistance to the city, said at his Wednesday night news conference that he would submit legislation to Congress which would provide up to $2.3 billion in federal loans to the city. The year-to-year loan authority would expire in 1978.

Lawmakers indicated Ford's plan would receive immediate consideration when Congress reconvenes Monday and there were numerous predictions it would win quick approval. But some cited continued opposition to any aid to the city, mostly from Republicans and conservative Democrats.

Ford said self-help steps taken by New York City and the state to increase revenues and cut expenses led him to reconsider his stand. He said the city

At the evening worship period which begins at 6:00 p.m., Bro. Casteel, will discuss, "Great Chapters of the Bible—Ephesians 1."

Periods of Bible Study will be conducted at 10:00 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. There are classes for all ages at both Study Periods.

"has bailed itself out." Under Ford's plan, the federal government will have first call on all city funds to assure repayment of the loans.

Both city and state officials said New Yorkers still face "painful burdens" before fiscal problems can be resolved.

Doctor Develops Home Treatment that

RINSES AWAY BLACKHEADS HELPS DRY UP ACNE-PIMPLES...

QUEEN HELENE MINT JULEP MASQUE 15 MINUTE HOME TREATMENT MUST SHOW IMMEDIATE IMPROVEMENT OR—YOUR MONEY BACK!

A leading New York Doctor, working with a cosmetic laboratory, has developed a simple home treatment that rinses away blackheads, helps dry up acne pimples, and shrinks enlarged pores. The name of this medicated product is QUEEN HELENE MINT JULEP MASQUE. Apply this delightfully Mint-Scented Cream, and within 2 or 3 minutes an absorbing agent called Argilla, dries and turns this cream into a plastic-like masque. You will now feel as though hundreds of "tiny fingers" are kneading the skin, loosening pore-caked dirt, blackheads, and other foreign impurities. As it firms and hardens, its suction action draws out waste matter from the pores. . . In 15 minutes you simply rinse the masque away with lukewarm water which dissolves it immediately. When you wipe your face, you can see that blackheads and other pore "filler" actually come off on your wash cloth. And your skin feels clean . . . really clean . . . refreshed, smooth like velvet. Women 35 and over will enjoy the skin tightening experience as the masque relaxes tired facial muscles and eases tension lines on face and throat. If you suffer the agony of blackheads, acne-pimples, and enlarged pores, give yourself this home treatment and see the breath-taking results. Ask for it by name, QUEEN HELENE MINT JULEP MASQUE.
